

Scene #1

→ Start

NEILSON (O.S.)

I'm sure you'll enlighten us, Cole.

*
*

Olsen and Cole turn to find DETECTIVE NEILSON. A ham-and-egger...

*
*

COLE

Hello, Neilson.

*
*

NEILSON

You wanna get out of my crime scene? Or do I need to call Ellingham?

*
*
*
*

COLE

No need to run to daddy...

*
*

Cole moves past Neilson...

*

NEILSON

How'd you get here so fast?

*
*

COLE

I was in the neighborhood.

*
*

NEILSON

Returning to the scene of the crime? Some perps do that you know.

End

*
*
*

COLE

You learn that on CSI?

*
*

Neilson stews as Cole exits. Olsen moves after him...

*

INT. LAURA'S APARTMENT. MOMENTS LATER.

Cole is moving past techs to the exit, when Olsen catches up.

*

COLE

The victim's Delta Phi.

*
*

OLSEN

We haven't checked yet.

*
*

COLE

She is. Have Grey check out her phone.

*
*
*

OLSEN

Already on it.

*
*

EXT. BLAIR'S SPLIT LEVEL APARTMENT. SIMULTANEOUS.

We look at the desperate girl, framed by the bloody window as the killer reaches her and TEARS HER AWAY FROM THE WINDOW...

INT. BEDROOM. BLAIR'S APARTMENT. NIGHT

A familiar scene as Cole stands, photographer and techs working around him. Cole is looking at -

Blair's body. Arranged on her bed. Made up to look like a doll. This time, we can see that her TORSO is gone. In its place lies the smooth plastic bust of a MANNEQUIN.

Neilson walks in, sees Cole...

→ Start Deja vu.

NEILSON

Neilson's eyes take in the grisly state of Blair's body.

NEILSON (CONT'D)

Jesus Christ...

Cole starts to leave. Neilson grabs his arm...

NEILSON (CONT'D)

You know, I was joking before, but now I might just be inclined to put you on my list of suspects...

End

COLE

Least then you'd be doing something.

Neilson bristles as Cole walks out into...

INT. HALLWAY. BLAIR'S APARTMENT. CONTINUOUS.

Cole sees Olsen approaching.

COLE

Torso this time

OLSEN

Fuck. You see the girl downstairs?

COLE

There's another victim?

OLSEN

Roommate.
